The above named user group agrees to the following terms and conditions:

1. DEPOSIT:
  - a. Girl Scout Groups: A reservation deposit is required for Girl Scout groups. The deposit is 50% of the total rental cost and is due at the time of booking.
  - b. Non-Girl Scout Groups: A security deposit is required for rentals. The security deposit is $150 per day/overnight due at the time of booking. This deposit will be refunded within 3 weeks of your departure, less any deductions for amounts owed under paragraph 2 of this Agreement.
2. LOSS OF SECURITY DEPOSIT: Security deposits are required for lodge rentals. Renter agrees to leave the property in the same general clean and undamaged condition it was upon arrival. Renters are responsible for any damage, abuse, excessive cleanup requirements, or loss caused by any member of the renter's party to the property or its contents during occupancy. Any damages may result in the loss of all, or part, of the security deposit and Girl Scouts of Alaska reserves the right to further bill the renter for additional cleaning or repairs beyond the amount of the security deposit. Violations of any of these policies will also allow Girl Scouts of Alaska to retain the entire security deposit.
3. PROPERTY DAMAGE: The user group is responsible to pay for any damage to buildings, equipment, or property owned by the Girl Scouts of Alaska, other than that due to ordinary wear and tear that may be reasonably attributed to the actions of the group. Property damage includes, but is not limited to destruction and disruption of trees, plants, and all natural growth on camp property. Girl Scouts of Alaska reserves the right to bill the renter for any damages or additional cleaning.

4. INSURANCE:

a. Girl Scout Groups

i. If your trip will include individuals other than registered Girl Scouts (adults and girls) you must purchase extra insurance through Girl Scouts of Alaska. These trips include family weekends and events with tag-a-longs. To purchase extra insurance contact the council office at least one week prior to your trip.

ii. I need to purchase extra insurance for our trip. Yes:  No:

b. Non-Girl Scout Groups

$1,000,000 per occurrence

$2,000,000 aggregate

2. Workers' Compensation including coverage for volunteers

Alaska Statutory

3. Employer's Liability $500,000

4. Automobile Liability $1,000,000 combined limit

a. including hired and non-owned coverage

b. including property damage

ii. The certificate of insurance Girl Scouts of Alaska and it's employees and volunteers named as additional insured on a primary and non-contributory basis.

iii. The user group agrees to indemnify and defend Girl Scouts of Alaska, it's employees, volunteers, board members, officers, and agents against and hold them free and harmless from any cause and all claims, demands, loss, damage, and expense, including attorney's fees and other legal expenses arising out of the use of a council site by the User Group.

5. CLEANUP (refer to User Group Handbook for more information):

a. Keep all facilities clean and orderly. You are responsible for taking everything out that you brought with you. All food that was brought with you must be removed. Sweep excessive dirt, wipe tables, wash, rinse, and store all dishes. Do not leave any food in the refrigerator or out on counters. Dispose of trash as directed by the Camp Ranger.

6. ALTERATIONS:

a. The user group shall not make any alterations to the property. Leave the property and facilities in the condition you found them. Do not hammer nails into the walls, put tape on the walls, or move any furniture or fixtures outside of the facilities or off the attached property.

7. SAFETY:

a. The user group must abide by our smoke-free, alcohol-free, drug-free, and weapon-free policies.

- b. The user group shall comply with all laws, rules, regulations and requirements of all governmental bodies whether Federal, State, Borough, or Municipal.
  - c. The user group must read and abide by site rules, User Group Handbook (sent upon receipt of payment), and Safety Activity Check Points (on Girl Scouts of Alaska website). The User Group Handbook is available on the Girl Scouts of Alaska website. Orientation to the camp's safety procedures and regulations will be provided upon arrival. User group is responsible for the supervision and behavior of the group and their compliance with these policies.
  - d. If the user group fails to abide by these policies, the Girl Scouts of Alaska representative may at his/her discretion terminate this agreement and require individuals/group to vacate camp.
  - e. BOAT ACCESS: User group must have an American Camp Association recognized instructor to have access to boats.
  - f. CLIMBING TOWER ACCESS: The climbing tower is only available with a Girl Scouts of Alaska climbing tower facilitator.
  - g. FIRST AID: The User group agrees to provide at least one adult with current first aid and CPR with AED certification to serve as the group's first aider.
  - h. BACKGROUND CHECKS: If your group includes children and/or teens you are responsible for completing, at a minimum, a check of the national sex offender registry for all adults within the last year. We recommend all adults have completed a national background check within the last year.
8. ANIMALS: Pets (other than service animals) are prohibited on camp property.
