Fall Product Program news

Last day for Girl Scouts to deliver their Fall Product Orders
 November 27 is the last day for Girl Scouts to deliver their Fall Product Orders. We know that some girls will be making deliveries to family members over the winter holidays, but with the official end to the program girls and troops need to wrap up financials. Talk to your families about getting their owed money in before the ACH on December 1.

Fall Product ACH
 If your troop owes council money for Fall Product sold, we will do an ACH sweep on December 1 for the amount owed. This means council will automatically pull the money from your troop bank account. Please make sure that your troop has the necessary funds in their account before that date. All troop proceeds will remain in your account.

If your troop had mostly or entirely online transactions, council may owe you troop proceeds! If we owe you, we will automatically push that amount into your account later in December.

Cookie program news

In-person Cookie Training
 We are hosting an in-person cookie training in the council office from 10am to noon on December 9th. This training will be geared towards troop leaders and cookie managers with two or less years of experience with the cookie program in Alaska but is open to all troop leaders and cookie managers. Please sign up here.

Virtual Cookie Training
 Cookie training this year will be available in many different formats, including on gsLearn! On December 1 we will release a gsLearn training series to work at your own pace through the cookie training modules. If you don't remember how to get on to gsLearn, or if you are not sure you ever have, you can find directions here.

Dates
 You can find a printable calendar for the 2024 cookie season here.
