

Mid Week Snack Break

Welcome Jennifer Money- Product Program Director

We're excited to announce that Jennifer Money is our new Product Program Director. Jennifer started her new position on August 5th and is located at our Anchorage office. Be sure to say hello to Jennifer the next time you are in the office or read about her below.

Meet Jennifer Money

My name is Jennifer Money, and I am ecstatic to join the Girl Scouts of Alaska team and support our Girl Scouts through the product program. I have a background in marketing, forecasting and logistics, and am a Girl Scout Troop volunteer. I am also a lifelong Alaskan. When I am not engaging in new creative projects, I spend as much time outside as possible. In addition to volunteering for Girl Scouts, I am an avid volunteer for youth team sports, and at my children's school. Traveling and being creative through any form of design is a lifelong passion and I love providing knowledge and a fresh perspective. I look forward to working with our volunteers and girls!
