

Destinations Application Information

Why is there an application for Destinations?

When you arrive at your Destination, you'll know that all your fellow travelers completed this application too– showing that they are just as passionate about the place and topic as you are, and that they have the skills needed to succeed on that trip. This application helps ensure that everyone is ready to come together for an amazing experience. (Plus, it's good practice for the college or job applications coming in your future!)

What is the application timeline?

August 1	Destinations applications open!
November 15	“Early decision” deadline. Apply by this date if there is a specific Destination you really want to join! Every application submitted between August 1 st and November 15 th will be reviewed in late November. Acceptance is NOT first come, first served during the early decision period
December 15	Destination hosts send early decision notifications.

After November 15th, most Destinations will still have some spaces remaining! Applications remain open on a rolling basis (first come, first served) until the trip is listed as “CLOSED” on the website.

Application checklist

(You are THREE steps away from starting your next great adventure!)

- ☐ 1. Draft your application on pages 3-4 of this worksheet. Once you begin the online application, you will NOT be able to save it and continue later. To avoid losing any work, use the worksheet to draft your answers, and then cut and paste the text into the online application. NOTE: If you want to apply for multiple Destinations, you must complete a separate application with a unique essay for each trip.
- ☐ 2. Request your references. You'll need two people to provide a reference (with the option of adding a third). If you are applying to more than one Destination, you can ask the same, or different, people to be references for each trip.
  - Who should I ask? Someone who knows you well and can talk about your strengths and ability to succeed on a Destination. Consider asking your troop leader, a coach, a teacher, a member of your place of worship, or any adult who knows you well. YOU MAY NOT ASK A PARENT OR OTHER FAMILY MEMBER.
  - What should I tell my references beforehand? As with all reference requests, it's a good idea to ask them if they are willing to do this before submitting their email on your application. Let them know that they will be asked to complete an online form for each application you are completing. They will be asked “to provide specific examples of the applicant's special strengths and/or skills that would enable them to enjoy and succeed in the Destination.” They can enter the information directly into an online form they will receive by email, or they can choose to upload a letter. Either is fine!

- How are references submitted? You’ll type your references’ email addresses into your online application, and they will automatically receive the form to complete. After you submit your application, immediately inform your references to look out for the email, and be sure to ask them to check their JUNK MAIL folders – it often goes there! If they cannot find it, not to worry; we will also email YOU a copy of the reference link in your application confirmation, so you can pass it along to your references if needed.

- 3. Apply online! Complete your online application. If you are applying for early decision, aim to complete your application by November 1st, so your references have enough time to finish their part of the application by the early application deadline: November 15th.

What happens next?

- As soon as you complete your application, you will receive a confirmation email.
- Your application will be sent to your references, so they can each complete their section. You will get an email once each reference completes their section.
- The application will also immediately be sent to a contact at your local Girl Scout council so they can verify that you are a current Girl Scout member.
- The application will be sent to the Destination host –the organization that is running the Destination.
- The Destination host will review your application and let you know their decision. If you apply by the early decision deadline (11/15), you will be informed by December 15th. If you apply after November 15th, admissions is rolling, and you can expect a decision within three weeks.
- If you have specific questions about the trips, please contact the Destination host, using the contact details on the webpage of the Destination.
